Everybody Can Possess Teeth of Natural Beauty—No Pain.

In this day of Porcelain Dentistry one who suffers the disadvantages of an unsound and unsightly set of teeth is his or her own worst enemy. This is not the intention of the writer to dwell extensively on the matter of being thus harassed by every possessor of a poor, repulsive set of teeth...

Gleed Deputy Sheriff in Westery

Convinced that Albert Fuller Burglarized Store and Post-office and Stole Horse in Hebron—Town Council to Sit as Court of Probate—Calvary Baptist Church Calls Rochester Pastor.

For the first time in many years the Westery town council will sit as a court of probate, immediately after the regular monthly business session, next Monday. The matter to be considered is the admission to probate of the will of Miss Ellen Burke, over which there to be contest on the ground of mental incapacity and undue influence.

There will be a contest over these pool room licenses, the petitioners being represented by council. A lively session is anticipated.

The People's Mission which, aside from its strictly religious work, does so much good for the deserving poor in matters wholly under the direction of Supt. Alexander Smith, elected the annual meeting of the church, J. Frisbie Farnsworth, president; Alexander Smith, superintendent and secretary; Mrs. J. Frisbie Farnsworth, treasurer; James Richards, Parquhar Smith, George Osgan and Parquhar Smith, committee.

A resolution has been presented in the state senate to revoke and annul the harbor lines in Point Judith pond in the town of Kingston. Also an act authorizing the town of South Kingston to construct and maintain a channel connecting Point Judith with Potter's pond, and validating the vote passed by the town to that effect.

Deputy Sheriff Frederick Prentice of Gleed, Tolland county, was in Westery, Conn., in consultation with Chief Brandford, relative to the identity of Albert Fuller, the horse thief now in Kingston jail.

The theft was from the farm in Hebron, owned by Edward W. Bill of New York. Besides the horse there was stolen a business wagon, a set of double harness, two sets double driving harness, a single work harness, a very light road harness, blankets, rubber coat, etc.

From nearly every one of the seventy-three places mentioned in the Fuller memorandum, Chief Brandford has received information that horses were stolen on the dates named, and, in many instances, the description of Fuller is identical with the fellow who drove away with the horses and never came back.

In capturing Fuller, the Stamford police have probably ended the thieving career of perhaps one of the most daring and persistent horse thieves in the country.

Among documentary evidence found in his possession is enough to indicate that he has been in the country with at least one New York liverysman, and the metropolitan police are giving attention to that end of the transaction.

The superior court for Washington county was occupied the greater part of Wednesday in the trial of the now pending case of Gleed vs. Gleed.

The case of Frank Collins against John V. Welford will come up for trial today (Thursday). The plaintiff seeks damages for horse, wagon and self by reason of being run into while on the Watch Hill road last summer, by an automobile driven by Welford.

Rev. F. C. A. Jones of Rochester, N. Y., has received unanimous call to become pastor of Calvary Baptist church, Westery, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Rev. Joseph L. Paacock.

Local Laocoms. Miss Jennie McPherson is critically ill at her home in Beach street, and is being cared for by a professional nurse from Providence.

Judge John W. Sweeney of Westery was at the speakers' table at the banquet of the Catholic club in Providence Tuesday evening.

A Portuguese vice consul is to be established in Providence, and will be of benefit to all Portuguese in Rhode Island who have consular business to transact.

At the progressive whist of Deborah chapter, Eastern Star, Mrs. W. A. Hillard made the highest score. Light refreshments were served.

Miss Katherine Farrer of Westery and Roscoe L. Cook of Woonsocket were married in St. Charles rectory in the latter place, Tuesday afternoon, by Rev. M. P. Cassidy, pastor of St. Charles church.

Henry Lee, freight clerk at the New London pier of the Norwich line, and who was discharged for not sending in the alarm as soon as he discovered the fire, was reinstated the night of Wednesday from New Haven. No reasons were given.

Has Proved Profitable for New Haven Road in Connecticut and Rhode Island.

For the first time since the express trolley companies began business in Connecticut a semi official report of the business operated by the New Haven road has been made.

It shows a net profit in Connecticut of $60,000; a net profit of $42,228 in Rhode Island; a total of $102,228 in the two states.

In Connecticut the express trolley system managed by the railroad company extends to the leading centers of the middle, southern and eastern portions of the state.

In Hartford the express privileges are held by lease by a separate corporation, but as soon as this lease expires the road will take that branch of public service into its own control.

SALE OF COCAINE

Said to Be Illegally Carried on in New Haven.

In connection with the arrest of Gen. D. Parovid, a New Haven drug con- cealer, a week ago, for selling cocaine in violation of the state law concern- ing its sale, evidence has been ob- tained through the efforts of Dairy Commissioner Potter, acting through his deputy, Tyler Crutenden, and in conjunction with County Health Officer Hoadley of New Haven, showing that there is quite a little traffic being carried on in the drug cocaine.

The authorities have determined to stamp out this traffic, if possible, and if the trade is not stopped immediately more arrests are likely to come in the course of the next few days.

The authorities have secured evi- dence which implicates not alone some storekeepers, but private individuals, who have been connected with the sale of the drug. Unless this selling is stopped, determined action will be taken to break it up at once.

It was stated by one of the officials that the sale of cocaine is getting to be a menace to the health of the state, and not only to health, but in the opinion of the authorities, to the morals of the state as well.

Tolland.—Harry W. Brown of Tol- land has been granted a divorce from Carrie S. Brown of Springfield on the ground of adultery. Mr. Brown said he was married to Katie S. Perkins in Vernon in May, 1906, when he was working on the Knight farm. They lived together only 25 days.

Patron Hussion simply made his plea as requested and from the ex- pression of opinion following the mass- es it is estimated that fully 1,000 men will do as he asked.

1,000 TO ABSTAIN. Fruitful Appeal to Bridgeport Men Made by Priest.

As the result of an appeal to the congregation to practice self-denial during Lent, Rev. James V. Hussion, of St. Charles R. C. church, Bridgeport, has worked wonders in the east- ern part of the city.

It is estimated that 1,000 men will abstain from their occasional glass of beer during the Lenten season. At the service Sunday Father Hussion announced the members of his congrega- tion than any other, but he urged them to make the resolve themselves, with- out any pledge and show themselves to be strong-minded men.

He declared that blessings would surely fol- low the sacrifice and that it would please him if they would act on his suggestion.
